

Movie_Title: Africa Blood and Guts

Movie_ID : 41264

Synopsis: A chronicle of the violence that occurred in much of the African continent throughout the 1960s As many African countries were transitioning from colonial rule to other forms of government violent political upheavals were frequent Revolutions in Zanzibar and Kenya in which thousands were killed are shown the violence not only political there is also extensive footage of hunters and poachers slaughtering different types of wild animals